

Micro-adventure

presented by

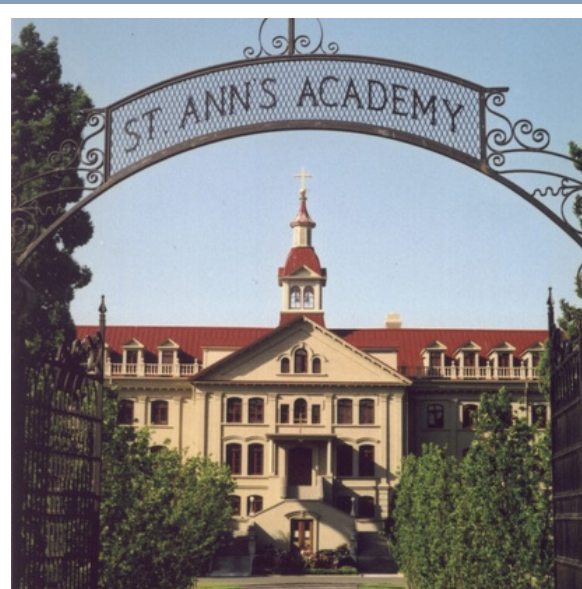

SALUT
CANADA

British Columbia

Stop

1

St. Ann's Academy

The St. Ann's Academy in Victoria, a National Historic Site, was restored in the 1990s. Visitors access a parlour converted to an interpretation centre and a large chapel. The public can access the wing, an impressive four-storey structure with a huge staircase and a triangular pediment topped by a bell tower.

Stop

2

Mary Fox Pottery

Mary Fox, an artist-ceramicist, has been an active potter for 45 years. She has become a master in recreating the beauty she witnesses daily in splendid, one-of-a-kind works, vases that convey her respect for nature. Her workshop-gallery is open to the public and proposes functional and decorative pieces.

Stop

3

Go Fish Charters

If fishing excursions are your thing, Go Fish Charters invites you to board the Eveready, its boat that has most recent gadgets and the best equipment. It can hold six persons, in addition to the crew, for half-day or complete-day outings to fish or simply to observe land and marine fauna.

Stop

4

Free Spirit Sailing

Go sailing with a free spirit. Owner Agathe Gaulin has over 25 years' experience as a sailboat skipper. Whether you're a beginner or a skilled sailor, she'll teach you everything you need to know to take the helm, perform all the manoeuvres, and sail safely and confidently on a sailboat.

Stop

5

Island Gourmet Trails

Island Gourmet Trails offers delicious culinary tours in the Comox Valley. This adventure will enable you to explore in total serenity the culinary magic of this region located in the heart of Vancouver Island. Every tour is tailored to the tastes and interests of each group.

Stop

6

Photo workshop with Catherine Babault

Take part in a nature photo workshop with wildlife photographer Catherine Babault. Discover unique spots in the greater Comox Valley region, Tofino or in the North Island and leave with some great photos. Vancouver Island is ideal for natural photography with its wide variety of landscapes, fauna and flora.

Stop

7

Nimmo Bay Wilderness Resort

Located in a niche in the heart of British Columbia, Nimmo Bay Resort provides visitors with breath-taking sensations in a natural setting. Choose the activity you like, be it a boat excursion, a helicopter tour, a dive into natural basins or a trek into the forest, and savour local and authentic cuisine served in a floating restaurant.

Show route on Google Maps!