

Micro-adventure

presented by

SALUT
CANADA

New Brunswick

Stop

1

Homarus Eco-Centre

This interpretation centre offers a unique and interactive experience relating to the mysterious world of lobsters and marine ecosystems through guided visits during which you will have an opportunity to see and touch these crustaceans. Awareness, education and durability are sources of motivations for the Eco-Centre team every single day.

Stop

2

Shediac Bay Cruises

Board the Ambassador, an ultra-safe and stable ship, which provides a panoramic 360-degree view. It can seat 56 passengers at tables where they can eat. Current owners Ron and Denise Cormier will have you sail through the warmest waters north of the Carolinas where Acadian culture reigns supreme.

Stop

3

The Pays de la Sagouine

On Île-aux-Puces, the works of writer Antonine Maillet will take you back to traditional Acadia, which she recreated around her most famous character la Sagouine. The Pays de la Sagouine proposes shows with contemporary Acadian music, dinner theatre packages, brunches and special events in its large modern hall.

Stop

4

Olivier Soapery

Come and visit this soapery founded in 1996, which claims it uses the purest olive oil and top-quality ingredients to create products that honour European tradition. Guided tours of the facilities are available, and you will even be able to make your way about in the boutique and see soap actually being made!

Stop

5

The giant Acadian flag

The Acadian flag is the most popular national Acadian symbols. In Saint-Louis-de-Kent located on New Brunswick's Atlantic coast where it was designed in 1883, a giant Acadian flag has been flying in the middle of the village of 2009 to mark the 125 th anniversary of its adoption.

Show route on Google Maps!